Title IX Resource Options ...

Sexual Violence | Partner Violence | Stalking | Sexual Harassment

Do you want to tell someone?

YES
Explore which options and resources seem best for you

NO
Only you can make this decision. Everyone processes experiences differently. Resources and support are always available.

Support
Support can include academic flexibility, counseling or other resources to facilitate self-care and healing.

Reporting
Reporting could include filing an informal or formal complaint under College TIX grievance procedures, reporting to the police or both.

- College
- Evidence Preservation
- Police

Title IX Office
Provides information about and helps navigate the TIX process. You may speak to TIX Office about options without disclosing all or any details, including name(s) of accused. 909.607.3148

Project Sister Hotline
24/7 help to understand options. Provides accompaniment to hospital for evidence preservation exam. Support navigating law enforcement process. 909.626.4357

Confidential

EmPOWER Center
Counselor trained in sexual assault, dating/domestic and stalking violence. Free sessions for 7C students. No reporting to College. 909.607.2689

Monsour
Free appointments can facilitate referrals to off-campus therapists. Reports to College only if imminent risk of harm to self or others. 909.621.8202

Chaplains
Available to serve all students. No reporting to College unless imminent risk of harm to self or others. 909.621.8685

Anonymous

Mudd Advocates
Peer-run, on-campus resource focusing on intersectional, trauma-informed care. Assist in exploring different support and reporting options. advocates@g.hmc.edu

Project Sister Hotline
24/7 hotline provides emotional support for survivors of sexual assault and guidance on issues like the evidence preservation exam and reporting to law enforcement. 909.626.4357

House of Ruth
Confidential counseling for survivors of intimate partner violence, anonymous 24/7 hotline, emergency and transitional shelter. Free services, available in English and Spanish. 909.623.4364

Private

Title IX Office
Coordinates support and wellness resources, helps students understand procedural options and assists those pursuing College grievance process. 909.607.3148

Dean of Students
General support. Facilitates academic flexibility or accommodations. Implements safety measures. On-call staff available 24/7 to address crisis situations. 909.717.7183

HARVEY MUDD COLLEGE

Office of Title IX

EmPOWER Center