Parent Property Lien Statement

The federal government requires recipients of Title IV federal financial aid funds to certify that they do not own any property that is currently subject to a judgment lien for a debt owed to the United States. This document satisfies this requirement and will help us determine if you are eligible to receive funding under the Federal Parent Loan for Undergraduate Students (PLUS) program.

Please check the box that applies to you, the parent borrower:

I certify that I do not own any property which is subject to a judgment lien for a debt owed to the United States, including, but not limited to, the Internal Revenue Service (IRS).

I certify that I do own property which is subject to a judgment lien for a debt owed to the United States, including, but not limited to, the Internal Revenue Service (IRS). I understand that I am ineligible to receive a Parent Loan for Undergraduate Students (PLUS) for my son or daughter's education unless I pay this debt in full or make arrangements, satisfactory to the United States, to pay this debt. Even if I have made satisfactory payment arrangements, I understand that such a lien appearing on my credit report may be deemed as adverse credit according to my lender resulting in a denial of my PLUS Loan. I understand that this certification is retroactive to PLUS funds I may have received prior to disclosing this information to Harvey Mudd College.
