Theoretical Studies on the Transition State Topologies for Claisen Rearrangements

This is a joint project with Professor Robert Cave in which transition state energies are evaluated using DFT calculations in an effort to see how well the results correlate with experimental data. The energies of the chair- and boat-like transition states will be evaluated in order to compare them with experimental data.

The energies of the chair- and boat-like transition states will be evaluated in order to compare them with experimental data.

Summer Research in the Daub/Cave Lab
Email Prof. Daub for details
daub@g.hmc.edu