kp.org

* To use the secure features of My Health Manager or to participate in a healthy lifestyle program, you'll need to register on our Web site. To get started, go to kp.org/register, then sign on with your user ID and password. Some services are not available in all areas.

† The "act for a family member" function allows parents and/or legal guardians to access their child's online electronic health record and exchange secure messages with their child's health care team. Access to a child's record is subject to state law. To help ensure the privacy of a child's personal health information, parents must sign on with their own user IDs and personal passwords each time they use the feature. A parent must be a Kaiser Permanente member registered on kp.org to act on behalf of a child member.

‡ These products and services are provided by entities other than Kaiser Permanente. These products and services are offered as extra services and are not covered services under your Kaiser Permanente benefit plan. Check your Evidence of Coverage, Member Handbook, or Service Agreement for details. Kaiser Permanente disclaims any liability for these discounted products and services, and we may discontinue offering these services at any time. While the formal grievance and appeals process is not applicable to these discounted products and services in the Colorado, Georgia, Hawaii, Ohio, Mid-Atlantic States, and Northwest Regions, should a problem arise with these services you may call the Member Services phone number for your region, and we will direct you as appropriate. California members: These products and services are provided by entities other than Kaiser Permanente. Some Kaiser Permanente benefit plans include coverage for certain of these discounted services. Plan benefits must be used before those discounted services are available. Check your Evidence of Coverage for details. Kaiser Permanente disclaims any liability for these discounted products and services. Should a problem arise with these services, you may call Member Services and we will direct you as appropriate.
