HOW: The following checklist will assist you to navigate the process.

CHECK WHEN COMPLETED	WHAT TO DO
	Talk to your supervisor/VP to confirm what is expected of you (e.g. use of a specific form, self-evaluations)
	Ask your VP if he/she wants to see your staff evaluations and, if so, confirm when that will occur (i.e. draft, final). Does the VP want to sign evaluations?
	Decide if you want your staff member(s) to complete a self-evaluation, and if so, if you will create one or use one that is available on the HR website.
	Set the stage by meeting briefly with each of your staff members to let them know when you will be conducting evaluations, what you expect regarding a self-evaluation, and the period of time that spans the review period.
	Be prepared by reviewing former evaluations, job descriptions and any performance documentation pertaining to the staff member. If you are a new supervisor, contact HR to review past evaluations.
	Decide if you need to obtain feedback from others who have worked with your staff member(s).
	Decide how you will document the evaluation. Use one of HMC's evaluation forms available on the HR website. Document the evaluation and provide an overall evaluation that includes up to two rating assessments.
	Draft the evaluation before or after you meet with your staff member. To help your staff member understand your assessment, include specific examples that support your comments.
	Meet with your staff member and use the evaluation form and the self-evaluation to guide your discussion. You may also want to refer to the job description during your meeting. Make sure you schedule enough time to have a productive conversation and that you meet in a private location. Remember to listen, ask questions, and express your appreciation for your staff member's participation in the meeting.
	Finalize the evaluation; make any changes that are a result of your meeting.
	Obtain signatures by the staff member and sign the evaluation as the supervisor. If applicable, obtain the signature of your next level supervisor/VP. If a staff member declines to sign, please make a note on the evaluation that states they were provided the evaluation and decided not to sign it. You still need to sign the evaluation as the supervisor.
	Complete the final evaluation by sending a copy to HR (original or electronic). Be sure to keep a copy for your records and provide a copy to your staff member.
