Making Plans for after Graduation

By the end of the junior year, students should have a “game plan”...employment, graduate school, gap year, etc.

However, things can change.

Helping Your Student

• Talk openly with your student about his/her plans
• Emphasize the importance of having a plan for summers but remember it is okay if they just want to come home
• Discuss decisions, but allow your student to make the decision
• Encourage extracurricular involvement especially leadership
• Be patient & supportive
